

Ketut Susilo

NEUROPHARMACOLOGIST

Executive Profile

I am a pharmacologist with a keen interest in neurologic drugs and therapies, who has worked in both the academe and industry for over 10 years.

Fields of Interest

- Emerging treatments for malignant brain tumors
- Experimental drugs for glioblastoma multiforme
- Novel therapies for Parkinson's and Alzheimer's Disease

Contact Details

Email:
hello@reallygreatsite.com

Phone:
(123) 456 7890

Office Address:
786 Plane Street,
Eastern Cape, Engcobo 5054

Office Hours:
M-F, 9 AM-5 PM

Affiliations

- Lortan City Neurologic Society
- Pharmacologic Alliance
- National Board for Drug Safety and Tolerability
- Lortan Organization for Pharmacologic Research

Work Background

Associate Professor

Lortan University Hospital | May 2010 - present

- Designs curricula for neurology and pharmacology
- Delivers courses in neuropharmacology and evidence-based research
- Oversees Ph.D. candidates

Senior Pharmacologist

Lortan North Labs | June 2005 - April 2010

- Conducted trials on drug efficacy and safety
- Ensured compliance to Good Laboratory Practices
- Evaluated, hired and trained new personnel

Education & Training

Lortan University

Post-doctoral Fellowship in Neuropharmacology

- Completed in May 2005
- Conducted a landmark drug trial on the efficacy and safety of Maxlemutimol-X for the treatment of early Parkinson's Disease

East Lortan College

Masteral Degree in Research and Statistics

- Completed in April 2000
- Lortan City Scholarship Awardee
- Published a systematic review of conventional and emerging treatment options for glioblastoma multiforme